DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1-20 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-12 of copending Application No. 10/695,950. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 1-12 of copending Application No. 10/695,950 cover and encompass (with some variations of wordings) the limitations of the claims 1-20 of the instant application. Moreover, it is well settled that the omission of an element and its function is an obvious expedient if the remaining elements perform the same function as before. In re Karlson, 136 USPQ 184 (CCPA 1963).

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

5. Claims 1, 5, 6, 10-12, and 14-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the admitted prior art figures 1 and 2 and paragraphs [0003] – [0011] of the instant application in view of Isaksson et al (US 2002/0126768).

Regarding claims 1, 5, 6, 10-12, and 14-19, the admitted prior of the instant application teaches all subject matter claimed except for the m shift registers. Instead, the admitted prior art use the multipliers (221-225). See figures 1 and 2 and paragraphs [0003] – [0011] of the instant application. However, Isaksson, from the same field of endeavor, teaches using the shift registers to perform the multiplying operation based on the quantized exponent of an integer power of two. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the system of the admitted prior art by the employing the shift registers for the multipliers as taught by Isaksson et al since it is well known that using the shift registers will have less circuit complexity and power consumption over the multipliers.

Conclusion

6. References Retter et al (US 6,021,421) and Igura (US 2003/0161278) are cited because they are pertinent to the OFDM synchronization. However, none of the cited references teaches or suggests, in combination, the further arrangements of calculating the correlation coefficient as recited in claims 2-4, 7-9, 13, and 20.
